

www.ShawnHarper.org
412-680-3222

Shawn Harper
is living proof that a Winning Mindset
can create success

"The quality of Shawn's message on how to break away from failure and strive for success is essential in today's world."
Jim Yeazell

The Winning Edge

Shawn Harper

Former NFL Player and Standing Ovation Speaker

Shawn Harper has overcome obstacles that are unimaginable to most people. Yet, through a vision and self-determination, Shawn created a purpose and achieved his dreams.

Raised in a low-income household with 5 siblings, Shawn was diagnosed with learning disabilities, behavioral challenges, and a debilitating stutter. He was told by teachers and counselors that he would never amount to anything and would be a product of the prison system. And, truthfully, he was headed down the path to destruction. With the help of his hard working mother and his high school football coach, he learned that he was responsible for creating a successful life. With a winners mindset and self-determination, Shawn defied the odds and graduated from Indiana University and played seven years in the NFL.

Today, Shawn owns a multi-million dollar business and travels the world as a powerful motivational and inspirational speaker and helps conference attendees learn how to create a Winner's Mindset.

Creating Oneness: Good Teams Work Together, Great Teams Work As One

Learn what great coaches did behind closed doors to win the game! Use these principles and strategies in your corporate office, or organization to have the Winners Mindset. Good teams work together, but great teams work as one. Attendees will learn how to:

- Discover the difference between success and winning
- Understand your true role and responsibility as a leader
- Build trust and authenticity among your leaders and teams
- Create a winning culture and energize your team by getting your employees to invest in the mission of your business

